

TWO CROYDON MEN APPEAR IN COURT; ONE IS SENTENCED

Clarence A. Goll to Pay Costs and $200 Fine to County

PLEADED GUILTY

Charles Raubach's Case Continued Because He Escaped
From Insane Hospital

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 5—Charles Raubach, of Croydon, charged with operating a motor vehicle after revocation of license, was remanded to the County Prison and the case continued when President Judge Hiram H. Keller was informed that the defendant was a fugitive from the Norristown State Hospital.

State Highway Patrolman Henry Hand testified that he arrested the defendant March 3, 1933, after he persisted in driving a car without a license.

Raubach, a World War veteran, suffering from shell shock and exceedingly nervous, changed the latter part of his name to procure license this year. He was arrested July 7 upon instigation of the State Highway Department.

His license was revoked a few years ago because of his physical condition and general unfitness and incompetence to drive a car.

Raubach, who is separated from his wife, receives a compensation of $27 a month, $18 of which is paid toward the support of his wife and a child.

President Judge Keller directed that the defendant be returned to the hospital.

"Do you think I am an insane man?" Raubach asked the Court.

"That is for the hospital authorities to say. I can't handle your case until you are properly discharged," Judge Keller told him when informed the defendant had "taken French leave" a few days ago from the institution.

First pleading not guilty and then changing his plea to guilty, Clarence A. Goll, Cedar avenue and New York avenue, Croydon, a plumber, charged with operating an automobile while drunk, was sentenced Tuesday to pay the costs of prosecution within ten days, and to pay the sum of $20 a month for ten months to the county of Bucks. He was also placed on probation for ten days.

Witnesses testified that Goll was driving near Andalusia on July 6, this year, when his car struck a car driven by James Dunner, and that he failed to stop. Fred W. Grupp, of Eddington, testified that Goll's car ran over his lawn several times. Police testified that they had considerable trouble arresting Goll, and that they finally found him asleep under a porch at the Grupp home.

Goll told the court that he has worked for the same boss for many years; that he was arrested just once before on a reckless driving charge, and that he was the sole support of his mother.

Ivan D. Trauger, a resident of Quakertown for nearly a quarter of a century, who was convicted by a jury on Tuesday afternoon on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and serve not less than three months nor more than three years in the County Prison.

The defendant, who was arrested by State Highway Patrolman A. P. Diem, September 15, following an accident at the intersection of Bristol Road and Second Street Pike, upon returning home from a clam bake, near Langhorne, was severely reprimanded by Judge Calvin S. Boyer.

When he appeared before the Court to be sentenced, his counsel asked that he be shown leniency because of his excellent reputation and because it was his first crime. He explained, too, that the defendant was unemployed.

"Your case doesn't testify to the Court because of your testimony. You went on the stand and added another crime—perjury—to the present one. Four witnesses, not one of whom had any reason to lie, testified that you were drunk," Judge Boyer said.

"You could have changed your plea. You should not have gone on the

HORSE COMPANY CHOOSES OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

Ezra Miller Re-Elected To The Presidency of Newtown
Company

LITTLE WORK TO DO

NEWTOWN, Dec. 5—The Newtown Independent Horse Company, organized years ago for detection of horse thieves and other villains, chose officers at its annual meeting this week. Twenty-two members were present when the session was called in Arcade Hall.

The Newtown company is one of the oldest of its kind in lower Bucks County. The association aided its members in a financial way in the event horses were not recovered. Most of the members were farmers.

Since arrival of the automobile age and the passing of the horse, there have been few times during the past few years when the company has been called upon to reimburse the members for stolen horses.

Since the automobile has taken the place of the horse the company has also been protecting the members who own automobiles, but it has been some years since it has been called upon to pay the owner of an automobile for his loss.

According to the secretary, W. Aubrey Merrick, of this place, the last time the company was called upon for assistance was six or seven years ago when the automobile of the late Horace G. Reeder, of this place, was stolen. The machine later was located in Philadelphia and the person finding the stolen auto was given a reward.

The organization some years ago had a very large membership, but today it has about fifty members, one of the oldest being James L. Cornell, of this place, who has been affiliated with it for many years.

During the brief session Ezra Miller, Newtown, who last year succeeded the late David Vorhees to the presidency, was re-elected as was also W. Aubrey Merrick, who served as secretary since 1923. Peter H. Morris, of this place, was elected vice-president, and John B. Chambers, also of this place, was named treasurer.

The board of directors includes John H. Mitchell, Stephen M. Vandegrift, John A. Hennessy and Alfred F. Krewson.

PROMISES AND LAUGHS

(New York American, December 1, 1935)

As election time in 1936 draws nearer, the PROMISES of President Roosevelt and his Administration comrades begin to bear a striking resemblance to the PROMISES of gaily laughing CANDIDATE ROOSEVELT at election time in 1932.

And when a man makes a promise, the degree of credibility that it carries is exactly proportionate to his PAST PERFORMANCES.

Candidate Roosevelt, laughing gaily, in 1932 PLEDGED himself to stand on the Democratic platform ONE HUNDRED PER CENT.

Laughing again, he made speeches throughout the country in which he denounced the growth of bureaus and commissions, PROMISED to reduce them, and PLEDGED himself, if elected, to BALANCE the budget, REDUCE the national debt, and REMIT EXCESSIVE TAXATION.

We did not know what he was laughing at THEN, but we begin to suspect NOW.

For no sooner had the smiling and promising Roosevelt taken his seat than he began to put into effect a program that was the ABSOLUTE REVERSE of all he had PROMISED.

He multiplied bureaus and commissions far beyond any peace-time level in our history.

He laid directly upon business, and indirectly upon wage earners, unbearably onerous taxes.

He increased the deficit by BILLIONS and hoisted the national debt to the BANKRUPTCY LINE.

Under the guidance of his Communistic advisers he began an onslaught on "bigness" in business which would have sent the country to Davy Jones' locker if the Supreme Court had not stopped him.

NOW another election is approaching, and Mr. Roosevelt is once again a smiling and willing candidate.

And the candidate of 1936 is executing the SAME MANEUVERS that the candidate of 1932 executed—the SAME promises, the SAME PLEDGES.

But President Roosevelt himself has set the standard of judgment on any man's promises.

He said in a speech at Butte, Montana, on September 19, 1932:

"The way we DO things, not the way we SAY things, is nearly always the measure of our sincerity."

This excellent moral maxim of our ever smiling President must inexorably be applied to himself and to HIS PROMISES in 1935 and 1936.

And in view of the PERFORMANCES of 1933 to 1935, these new Presidential promissory notes should not be worth any more than the dishonored political drafts of 1932.

Yet Mr. Roosevelt smiles and smiles, and Mr. Ickes "laughs out loud"—perhaps at the confusion and cross purposes of the New Deal, perhaps at the futility of political promises, perhaps at the thought of what will happen to the country if this Administration, endorsed and encouraged to further excesses, is returned to power.

In any case this is a light and laughing Administration throughout. From the top down EVERYBODY laughs.

Foreign goods are invading the American market. And the Administration laughs.

American factories are being closed by competition with alien cheap labor. And the Administration laughs.

Ten million Americans are still out of work. And the Administration laughs.

American farm products are being destroyed, and foreign farm products are being imported. And the Administration laughs.

Markets for American cotton and corn and grain and meats are being permanently lost to the American farmer. And the Administration laughs.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN IS KILLED BY TRAIN

Believed to Have Committed Suicide on Trenton Cut-
Off of P. R. R.

BODY BADLY MANGLED

An unidentified man met his death beneath the wheels of a freight train on the Trenton Cutoff of the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday afternoon.

The tragedy, believed to be a suicide case, occurred one mile from Woodbourne, and one-half mile east of the Dunlap station.

The victim is described by Deputy Coroner W. Furman Young as being 5 feet, 10 inches, tall; having gray eyes, brown hair; and being about 38 years of age. He was fairly well dressed, wearing a navy blue suit, a collar and tie; but no hat could be found in the vicinity. No papers, which might lead to identification, were found on the body.

The affair occurred at 2.15 o'clock. The man was seen walking west on the eastbound track by residents of the section, who state that when a west-bound freight train approached, the man appeared to step directly in front of the train. The body was badly mangled.

The train involved was drawn by engine No. 4644. There were 100 empty coal cars in tow.

George Howard, Harrisburg, was the engineer; and Luther W. Read, conductor.

The body was removed to a Langhorne morgue, where it awaits identification.

BUCKS BUSINESS DROPS IN MARRIAGE LICENSES

Due, It Is Alleged, to the New Pennsylvania Law of 3
Days Elapsing

120 GRANTED IN NOV.

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 5—Business has dropped in the office of the Clerk of Orphans' Court of Bucks County, a survey of November business shows. The business drop is due, it is stated, to the new Pennsylvania law, making it necessary to wait for three days to secure a marriage license after application has been made.

It is said that business which once came to Bucks County is now being distributed to other centers. The loss to Bucks County, it is estimated, will be great.

Those in authority in the Orphans' Court, as well as clergymen, Justices of the Peace and others authorized to marry, are very anxiously awaiting a report as to whether the new law will decrease divorces. A great percentage of those who are experienced in this line say it will not.

During the month of November there were 120 marriage licenses granted in Bucks county, according to the docket kept by Deputy Clerk of Orphans' Court Jacob L. Shelly, of Fountainville. Last year in November a total of 181 licenses were granted.

In spite of the new law, however, the number of non-residents who secure licenses in Doylestown, has not decreased in proportion. During November more than 60 percent of the applicants lived outside of Bucks county. Six states were represented with most of the non-residents coming from Philadelphia and Trenton.

During the month of November, 63 percent of the female applicants had occupations other than housework. Bristol, with eight applicants, led the list of boroughs in Bucks county.

The records also show that among the individual applicants there were fourteen who had been divorced, including six women and eight men.

Only 28 of the applicants in November were under twenty-one with the big proportion ranging in ages between twenty-one and thirty.

The ages of the applicants, grouped in five-year age ranges were as follows:

	Men	Women
Under 21 years .....	10	11
21 to 25 years .....	50	62
25 to 35 years .....	31	26
35 to 40 years .....	11	8
40 to 50 years .....	7	6
50 to 60 years .....	6	5
Over 60 years .....	4	2

New Light On Hauptmann Case

New York, Dec. 5—According to a story appearing today in the New York Evening Journal, Governor Hoffman of New Jersey has been conducting a private investigation of Bruno Richard Hauptmann's case, and has uncovered facts which may give new sensations to the crime.

The newspaper stated it has learned that the new sections uncovered may save Bruno Richard Hauptmann from the electric chair, at least delay his execution.

The Governor launched his investigation last April, according to the story, and pressed into service a famous detective. "Just what the Governor's private investigation turns up I don't know," the Journal quotes a high official as declaring. "One thing is certain, that Hauptmann is a long way from the electric chair no matter what the Supreme Court decides."

"Ever since Hauptmann's conviction the Governor was anxious to hold a private investigation."

"Governor Hoffman took the initiative and hired the best detectives. I don't believe the Federal police are aware of this," Ellis Parker, ace investigator of Burlington County, has been a frequent visitor to the Governor's office at Trenton, N. J.

Bear Now Legal Prey

Harrisburg, Dec. 5—Bear became legal prey of licensed hunters throughout Pennsylvania today—but only for a three-day period ending at sundown Saturday.

Only yearling bears, those that stand about up to the average man's knee may be killed during the "short season." Trailing dogs are also forbidden. Bear has been protected the last two years, and with the large number of hunters, a large kill is expected.

MOTHER AND GIRL FRIEND HELD IN BAIL CHARGED WITH ABDUCTING 6-YEAR-OLD CHILD FROM PATERNAL GRANDMOTHER

Two Philadelphia Women Alleged to Have Come to Bristol
Township Home Yesterday Afternoon and After Fight
Fled With Child — Both Women Apprehended in Philadelphia Late Last Night — Will Be Given Further Hearing
On December 12th.

Two Philadelphia women, one the mother of a child, were held in bail here today for a further hearing, charged with abduction of the child.

Those held:

Mary White, 1711 South Lee street, Philadelphia.

Barbara Puidok, 602 North Seventh street, Philadelphia.

The whereabouts of the child has not been learned by the authorities, who claim that the mother has refused to tell where she has placed her offspring.

It was necessary to continue the hearing, according to the evidence of Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo, due to the illness of the paternal grandmother of the child, whom it is alleged was severely pummeled following an argument over the custody of the six-year-old girl.

Complaint was lodged with the authorities by Mrs. Katherine Pearson, 50, Beaver Dam road, Bristol Township, paternal grandmother of Mary K. Pearson, six. Mrs. Pearson told Detective Russo that about one month ago her son's ex-wife, Mary White, came to the Pearson home and sought custody of her child, the father of whom was Mrs. Pearson's son. Mrs. Pearson refused to give up the child, to whom she has become greatly attached, and whom she has taken care of for the past three or four years, since the separation of her son and daughter-in-law.

Simeon P. Groves Dies At His Eddington Home

EDDINGTON, Dec. 5—Simeon P. Groves, husband of the late Margaret Ward Groves, died at his residence, Street Road, here, yesterday, in his 85th year.

The late Mr. Groves was a native of Kingston, N. J., and came here a number of years ago. He was a retired gardener.

Surviving are: a daughter, Mrs. Urban Wall, with whom Mr. Groves resided; three sisters, Miss Elizabeth Groves, Mrs. John Hendrickson, Princeton Junction, N. J.; Mrs. Nora Bastedo, Trenton, N. J.; two brothers, William and Albert, both of New Jersey; and three granddaughters.

The Rev. Arthur F. Gibson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, will officiate at the funeral Saturday, December 7th, at two p. m., from the funeral home of the H. S. Rue Estate, 314 Cedar street, Bristol. Burial will be made in Bristol Cemetery. Friends may call Friday evening.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP BANQUETS AT YARDLEY

William Whitehead Chosen
President of St. Andrew's Church Organization

PLAN WELFARE PARTY

YARDLEY, Dec. 5—A banquet and business session was held by the members of the Yardley Young People's organization in St. Andrew's Parish House, Tuesday evening, with Jack Rembe presiding.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, William Whitehead; vice-presidents, William Groner and Jack Rembe; secretary, Alice Marie Ross, and treasurer, Miss Marion Smith; directors, Raymond Hampton, Mrs. Clifford Nelson, George P. Brown, Mrs. Robert C. Belleville, 3rd, and Mrs. Joseph Yardley.

Robert C. Belleville, 3rd, reported for the dramatic groups that early in February a comedy, "Skidding" will be presented by the organization for the benefit of the Yardley Civic Club. The dramatic section will be divided into three groups this season, each group selecting, casting and staging a play for competition with each other.

To audit the accounts of the retiring treasurer, Raymond C. Hampton, the president appointed Mrs. Dorothy Page, George P. Brown, and Mrs. Inez Yardley.

A welfare card party will be held early in December by the club with Miss Helen W. Leedom as chairman, assisted by Tables—George P. Brown, James Satterthwaite, Alvin Baker; refreshments—Mrs. Charles F. Cook, Miss Alice Marie Ross, Mrs. Chester A. Page, Miss Marguerite Beener, cards and tallies—Miss Marion Smith, Miss Lillian Groner, Mrs. Edith McGrady.

The following program was enjoyed: Vocal solos, "Duna" and "Trees," by James Rowland, with Mrs. C. C. Continued on Page Two

Yesterday afternoon, the child's mother, accompanied by another woman giving the name of Barbara Puidok, arrived at the Pearson home.

There ensued further argument over custody of the child, but Mrs. Pearson refused to surrender her granddaughter. Then, according to Mrs. Pearson, the Puidok woman was spoken to in a foreign tongue by Mary White. The Puidok woman left the Pearson home, going to an automobile in which the two had driven to Bristol, and it is alleged returned to the Pearson home with a revolver. Mary White, it is then charged by her mother-in-law, attacked her, pulling her hair and clothes, and the Puidok woman grabbed the child from Mrs. Pearson, taking the youngster out and putting her in the car. Mrs. Pearson and Mary White followed, arguing from the house to the car, Mary jumping in and the pair driving away with the child.

A warrant was issued upon the information of Mrs. Pearson, and detective Russo and Charles P. Alta, accompanied by Philadelphia detectives, apprehended the Puidok woman at her home, and took Mary White into custody at a hosiery mill at 22nd and Allegheny avenue, Philadelphia.

The two women were brought to Bristol, and given a hearing this morning before justice of the peace James Laughlin, at the municipal building. Barbara Puidok was held in $500 bail, and Mary White in $1,000 bail, for a further hearing December 12th.

Jumps Into Truck's Path;
Is Killed

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 5—John Tufo's anxiety over 85 cents he left on the lunch counter of a water-front restaurant, today caused him his life.

Suddenly remembering that he forgot to pick up his change, Tufo, a 40-year-old dockworker, jumped from a trolley car and raced back to the restaurant. Police said he jumped into the path of a truck operated by Walter Davis, 42, of Chester, and was killed instantly.

A SANE CHRISTMAS

Christmas is called the most beautiful holiday of the year, one that glows with poetic imagination and lovely sentiment. And yet it has its incongruities and contradictions, and it needs some remarking, if it is to be reasonable and helpful to us all.

The most undesirable feature of it has been the grand rush to buy gifts and send them off during about 10 days previous to the holiday. People for years have been shown how unbusinesslike it is, how it makes the cost of distributing Christmas gifts higher, how it imposes a heavy burden on store people and post office employees, how many of these folks are all tired out when the grand scrimmage ends.

And yet people keep along in this ancient habit, and no doubt we shall see this year the same old rush. But the agitation for early buying of gifts has accomplished something, and a good many people do so as far as they can.

The reason commonly given for this final rush, is that people haven't the money ahead, and they have to wait until just before the holiday before they are able to buy the things they want. Still, there are plenty of people for whom that excuse does not apply.

PLOTTING AGAINST DANNO

A trade organ of the sports industry advises that the wrestling trust is disappointed with the drawing power of Danno O'Mahoney, the recently appointed champion. His only pull at the box office has been in Boston, and he is fading there as an attraction. At the first favorable opportunity, says this informant, he will be deposed.

The dyed-in-the-wool wrestling fan is practically impervious to insult, but we hear complaints even from these that O'Mahoney has been the least convincing of the champions in their time. It is not entirely that he knows little about wrestling, but that he meets no popular conception of a wrestler.

The trust is understood to be divided on the identity of the new champion—one element favoring Don George, another urging the restoration of London, and a third feeling the time is here for a new Masked Marvel. If a wrestler is partly concealed, it is so much to the good, some say.

Meanwhile, it is pleasant to reflect that pure democracy persists in one activity of man—that popular sentiment is all powerful somewhere, even in so minor a field as wrestling. When favorites cease to win in the mat game we shall begin to expect Ben Hur to finish second in the big chariot scene.

stand, taken an oath, and said you were sober. That phase of your trial disgusts the Court more than the crime itself.

"Your going on a spree at a clam-bake, no doubt, caused the accident. You might have killed a small child or a woman and then you would have been here on a charge of murder. You were in an ugly mood, no doubt because of your drinking, and even threatened the man you injured."

"Outside of your previous good reputation," continued the Court, "we see no reason why you should not be given the maximum sentence of three years—never imposed on any defendant in this court so far on your charge."

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste, poisonous matter may develop, causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist.

rich, successful, taking his place in the society where he belongs. What good are position and power without money? I've got to make him see it! Oh, you'll come tomorrow?"

Walter hesitated. "It's grand of you to ask us, but I'd rather not. Helen is too shy yet to have me spring any formal dinners on her. Let her get used to things a little at first."

Irene shrugged. "As you say!"

Walter, fearing lest Irene misinterpret his meaning, added hastily: "She's so shy, you know. But I'll tell her you asked us. She's so grateful if you're nice to her. She's at mama's now."

"At mama's?" Irene's eyebrows shot up. "What is she trying to do, get around the old girl? And you call her shy?"

"She's sweet. Honestly she is, Irene. She went over to see how mama is. She suggested it this morning."

Irene's lip curled as she reached for the phone that rang. "Well, maybe she is. She'd better be, because if she's one of those sneaking white mice she'd better watch herself with me. That's all I'm saying!"

"Nerves!" she informed him. "I had a red-hot run-in with Dick."

"Nerves!" she informed him. "I had a red-hot run-in with Dick."

To be Mrs. Walter Riley! To venture after some hesitation into the shops and buy bath salts and silk bloomers and take and bedroom slippers and pay for them from the thick roll of bills and say—"Mrs. Walter Riley, the Plaza Hotel." It was like a dream from which Helen half expected to be awakened at moment to find herself back at her table manicuring nails and sympathizing with the endless woes of her clients.

Walter met her daily for lunch and now they dined, openly, boldly, in the best restaurants, actually looking for acquaintances that he might proudly introduce, "my wife."

It was a new New York for Helen, a hitherto undiscovered and completely inaccessible New York. After several days of shopping for accessories, Helen with some trepidations decided to buy clothes. Irene, Helen knew, from Salen gossip, bought her clothes in small shops on Madison Avenue and in the shops that line Fifty-seventh Street, but on glancing in Helen was afraid to enter. The salespeople were just too magnificent. It didn't seem quite right to ask creatures so superb as these who creased about these shops to do anything so trivial as to wait on her.

In one of the shops where Irene finally decided to go, attracted by models in the window, she was nervous and uncertain, particularly as an overbearing grande dame with marcelled white hair approached her. The saleswoman knew immediately that Helen was a complete novice in the art of buying clothes and suspected further that Helen was a poor creature who had suddenly acquired a sugar daddy.

No More Slavery CONSTIPATION

Not a word to say about your favorite laxative or cathartic—that's your business.

All we ask you to do is to get one 40 cent jar of Kruschen Salts and take as much as will lie on a dime in your morning cup of tea or coffee.

The six precious salts in Kruschen help to cause stomach, liver, gall bladder and bowels to function naturally and healthfully—you clear the system of poisonous waste and acid and regular blissful bowel action will gladden your heart.

Before the jar is empty you'll feel fine—keener mind—actively alive—more ambition.

No more laxatives -- no more cathartics and no constipation when you take your little daily pinch of Kruschen. At United Drug Store, and druggists everywhere.—(Advertisement.)

A one-egg chocolate cake is most welcome in these times to the average family.

And I happen to have just such a recipe, one that will please all the chocolate cake lovers.

This particular recipe calls for:
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup cocoa
Yolk of one egg.

Cook the above ingredients until thick.

Then mix:
1/4 cup butter
1 cup sugar.

Add the first mixture to the latter.

Next add:

1/2 cup milk
1 1/2 cups flour sifted with
1/2 teaspoon soda.

Bake in a loaf, or in layers.

The white of the egg can be reserved for either a boiled icing, or an icing made with confectioner's sugar.

FAT GIRLS GET
THE GO-BY—SLIM
GIRLS WIN MEN

LOSE FAT THE EASY WAY—Without Starvation Diets, or Back-Breaking, Bending and Rolling Exercises. There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right. All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 24 hours, many people take on ugly fat. This fluid helps Nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace.

Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same scientific method used by doctors. So why not lose fat the easy way—without starvation diets or back-breaking, bending and rolling exercises? Start the Marmola treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get Marmola today from druggists.

Twenty Years From Now

The Industrial is issuing a new policy by which, when you have paid the premiums weekly or monthly for 20 years, the policy is paid up. You pay no more thereafter. The insurance will be paid to your beneficiary at your death. The policy is incontestable after two years except for non-payment of premiums, misstatement of age, or over insurance.

It has cash surrender values after five years. We insure men and women between the ages of 18 and 50 at their next birthday under this form.

This policy is issued only in the sum of $250. Then for the children, from birth to twelve next birthday consider our policy for children — $250 for 10c per week.

This will be issued by both companies, so that for 20c per week you can insure the life of each child for a total of $500.

Ask about our endowment policies with premiums payable weekly or monthly as you may desire.

And lastly, but not the least, have you provided insurance against sickness and accident? Ask our agent about all of our new policies. Pay your premiums promptly.

TO BATTLE FOR LEAD IN BASKETBALL CIRCUIT

The battle for first place in the Bristol Amateur Basketball League will take place tonight on the Italian Mutual Aid floor as the fast-going Moose quintet stacks up against the Odd Fellows. The Moose is undefeated while the Hermannmen have dropped but one contest. In the first game of the night, Joe Aita's revamped St. Ann's team meets the Y. M. A.

Local followers of the Bristol loop are eagerly waiting for the Moose-Odd Fellows fracas as it is these two clubs which boast of the strongest line-ups in the circuit. The Moose has Dugan, Joe Roe, Nels Green, Herbie Lawrence and Larry David while the Oddies have Danny Hines, Frank Frankovic, George Weidman, Vince Sawicki and George Riemer. Manager Herman will have his full club against the Moosers. Joe Aita, manager of the St. Ann's five, has been working diligently to build up a team to represent his organization. He recently signed three players which will strengthen the scoring power of his club. The Y's are already organized and surprised the Moose Monday night by giving them a close fight throughout the game.

"SAINTS" TO PRACTICE TONIGHT FOR GAME

Members of the St. Ann's A. A. football team will hold a practice drill tonight in the rear of the club-house under the direction of Coach Bill Dougherty. The "Saints" will play the Bristol Recreation team, Sunday, on the gridiron at Jefferson avenue and Garden street. The largest crowd of the season is expected to witness the two Bristol clubs pitted against each other.

Coach Dougherty will change a few of the plays tonight in addition to giving several new positions. The Saints are slightly handicapped by the absence of a few injured players but feel as if they will give the Recs a stiff contest.

Coach "Gige" Dougherty is holding practice sessions with the Recs and is confident that his club will win handsily over the Purple and Gold, this despite the fact that his team will use intercollegiate rules after using professional all season. The only tilt in which the Recs used intercollegiate rules was with Mount Holly, the only game in which the locals suffered a defeat.

KOVERLY RAVES AFTER MAT BOUT

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 5.—George Koverly, whom the wrestling fans delight in calling "Cry Baby," threw the Arena into a turmoil last night when he threatened, attempted and partly succeeded in battling Referee Matt Pol'annic, two officers and even Promoter Johnny Ipp after losing to Sandor Szabo in two out of three falls.

Koverly raved about the ring like a madman, attempted to make a speech, kicked at several over-zealous fans and generally created a rumpus much to the delight of the audience. His wrath was aroused simply because Szabo kicked him in the face and knocked him over a string of chairs while he was attempting to climb back into the ring. He was counted out for the third fall by the referee just after Szabo managed to crawl through the ropes.

Szabo won the first fall in 20:29 with a back drop, but after the intermission Koverly came back and with the aid of some illegal tactics and a body slam managed to gain the second fall in three minutes. When the grapplers returned for the third fall, they flew at each other with more than the usual enthusiasm, with Koverly employing all the off-color tricks in the game and Szabo handing out punishment galore. In exactly three more minutes the pair fell through the ropes. Instead of scrambling back to the ring, they engaged in a slugging match, with Szabo having the better of the exchange. After this tussle, Szabo started to climb through the ropes when he struck upon the happy idea of kicking "Cry Baby" in the face. It was most effective. Both weighed 215.

They were rematched for next week after Koverly was quieted in his dressing room.

In the semi-windup, Sergei Kalmikoff, 240, of Russia, threw Jim McGrath, 236, of California, in 7:05 in a dull bout. Previously Al Mercier, 214, of Canada, and Dr. Fred Myers, 212, of Chicago, had staged a lively draw, and Jack Donovan, 213, of Boston, had flattened Jim Kendrick, 210, of that same city, in 17:19.

PROMISES AND LAUGHS

Our trade balance sinks lower and lower. Our national debt mounts higher and higher.

And the Administration laughs. The budget is worse each year. The spending mania is greater each year. The taxes are heavier each year.

And the Administration laughs. The future is being mortgaged. Our children are being apprenticed to poverty. The nation is being headed straight for bankruptcy.

And the Administration laughs.

What do the members of the Administration find to laugh at, unless at each other?

What is there in the pitiful plight of the American public to cause those in the Administration who are responsible for PRESENT conditions to LAUGH?

The Administration would better stop laughing, and stop promising and stop singing the Internationale.

It is time to sing something American and SAY something American. And DO something American and BE something American.

Everybody is fed up with phrases and promises and grinning gayety.

It is time for serious purpose and vigorous action. Laughs are no longer welcome.

Promises are no longer believed. And the only song that will satisfy the American public is the STAR SPANGLED BANNER.
